

QUEEN CHARLOTTE COLLEGE

Newsletter to Parents, Caregivers & Friends of the School • 22 October 2009

Welcome back to Term 4. With Labour Weekend and Anniversary Weekend we have two short weeks and November will be upon us before we know it. We now look ahead to the end of the academic year for 2009 and ask that the school community works together to support and encourage those facing examinations and project finals. Parents, caregivers, brothers and sisters can all help to ensure the best possible environments for our senior students to help them achieve their personal best.

Our Year 9 students are away on camp this week and our Year 10 students will be away later in the term with their varied activities.

Prizegiving has been set for Thursday 10th December this year. We appreciate the community support which assists us to recognise the achievements of our students at Prizegiving. Anyone who wishes to support Prizegiving 2009 is most welcome to contact Mrs Sandi Lock on Extension 837 at the College. ❖

Orientation Day Orientation Day for 2010 students will be held on November 11th. Parents of prospective students are invited to meet Mr Parsons and Mrs Whyte when they visit the local primary schools as tabled. An alternative meeting for parents will also be held in the Queen Charlotte College Library on Thursday 29th October at 7.00pm for any parent who is unable to attend the primary school visit.
