

QUEEN CHARLOTTE COLLEGE

Newsletter to Parents, Caregivers & Friends of the School • 11 November 2010

I am inordinately proud of the 2010 Educational Review of Queen Charlotte College. A copy of the report will be published in the Marlborough Express and a copy of the full report will be available on line in due course at www.ero.govt.nz. I would like to thank staff, students and our wider community for their support during the ERO visit. A copy of ERO's letter to the public is attached.

Yesterday, Queen Charlotte College held an orientation day for new students attending in 2011. We trust they enjoyed the day and we look forward to seeing them again ready to start the 2011 school year.

Our Year 11, 12 and 13 students finish timetabled classes tomorrow and begin their external NCEA examinations on Monday. Apart from the exams and individually arranged tutorials, we do not see them again until the Prizegiving on Thursday 9th December. We wish them all the very best for their exams, as we do the Year 9 and 10 classes who also commence their exams next week.

The rest of the College, however, still needs to be focused on school work. Although there will be quite a few activities and interruptions as we lead up to the end of the year, it is important to keep everything as structured and normal as possible.

Student Achievement

Congratulations to Stephie Loncar who recently sat Fit for German 1 at the Goethe Institute in Wellington. Stephie passed the four part test (speaking, writing, listening and reading) with 91%. Well done, Stephie.
